Our Organization Focus and Programs

MEGA Mentors is a volunteer organization comprised of over 100 volunteers who support over 500 students in seven Chesterfield County Schools. MEGA is a nonprofit organization, and affiliated with the Chesterfield Education Foundation. The organization was founded in the fall of 2009 when Dr. Marcus Newsome, Superintendent Chesterfield County Schools, asked a few community leaders to participate as mentors to close the achievement gap with especially African American males. Since then, the organization has grown exponentially in terms of volunteers, students and programming. MEGA now serves male and female students in its mentoring programs which teach the basic values of RESPECT, RESPONSIBILITY, EFFORT and ACHIEVEMENT. These core values are imbedded in over 75 "lesson plan guides" developed by MEGA Mentors and friends of MEGA. The "lesson guides" also include life skills and leadership training and social experiences to broaden the student's perspective personally, academically and socially. We understand that all learning does not occur in the classroom. The organization sponsors speakers from all professions. Additionally, MEGA sponsors field trips, goal oriented recognition programs and awards to encourage ACHIEVEMENT. MEGA participates in the Falling Creek After-School Program.

In 2015 MEGA Mentors was recognized as 'Community Partner of the Year' by the Chesterfield County School Board and Administration. MEGA was also recognized as recipient of 'The Presidents Volunteer Service Award' for community service. In summary, our goals are to build hope, student efficacy, goal orientation and leadership skills which will eventually lead to better scholastic and behavioral results. Please refer to our website (www.megamentors.org) and social media pages for details.
